WET TRACK AT CHARLESTON

HEAVY RAINFALL OF SUNDAY NIGHT GIVES MUD RUNNERS A CHANCE.

Favorites and Second Choices Divide the Palmetto Park Card-Dearth of Layers Continues-Please Welles Again a Winner,

Charleston. S. C. February 3.—Racing through the mud was the order at Palmetto Park this afternoon, due to a heavy dreuching that the track received as a result of a hard rain that fell last night. Threatening weather, coupled with intermittent showers during the afternoon, contributed to a decreased attendance. The regulars, however, were out in force and indulged in spirited betting. No new layers operated. There are many big operators here, but their betting activities are minimized for the present pending the getting into action of more layers. The management is auxious to see at least nine layers in line. The talent again fared well, favorites and second choices dividing the card. The worst upset the public experienced came with the failure of H. G. Bedwell's Madman, which was beaten by Toison d'Or. Most interest in the racing centered in the performance of the two-year-olds, which began the afternoon's proceedings. Gordon and Please Welles, both former winners, fought it out at the end and the filly won as her rider pleased. Gordon's defeat was by no means disgraceful and had he enjoyed the same racing luck as the filly, he would have given her a much better argument. Salvation Rey took third place. Wooden Shoes might have been a factor in the running but for suffering from a jam that came soon after the start. He was badly cut around the legs by being jumped on. The Zimmer stable took another purse when Ancon won the third race. The changed track conditions and Butwell's presence in the saddle worked a marked change in his running as compared with his former efforts.

Hugh Penny arrived from Norfolk this morning with two of his racers, Supervisor and Wood Dove. The borses that Mr. Penny left at Norfolk are in good shape, especially Judge Monck, which is training well. Kormak is resovering from a slight ailment. Mr. Penny reports that A. G. Weston was a visitor at the Jamestown Jockey Club's course yesterday. He cause over from Salisbury, Md.. to arrange for stalls for twelve horses which he will ment. J.

GOVERNOR SULZER HAS OPEN MIND.

Albary, N. Y., February 3.—Reports that Governor Sulzer was and was not in favor of legislation wiping out the personal liability of directors of race tracks were brought to his attention a day or two wiping out the personal liability of directors of race tracks were brought to his attention a day or two ago.

"I have not taken any position." he replied. "I am reading the report of the racing commissioners. Later I will issue a statement containing my views." In their report the commissioners recommended a repeal of the Directors' Liability law, which had the effect of closing the race courses in this state.

Another newspaper man asked Governor Sulzer if there was any truth in the report that a bill was being prepared to be introduced in the Legislature for the purpose of placing horse racing in New York State on the same basis as boxing and sparring contests, now conducted under the supervision of the State Athletic Commission.

The Governor in reply asserted that he would make no statement upon the racing proposition until after he had devoted his attention to other matters which he considered of more importance at present. However, the Governor added, he soon would read the State Racing Commission report and give the question due consideration, after which he would make a statement on the subject which he hoped would be satisfactory. Until then the Governor declared that he had nothing further to say on the subject of horse racing.

EXPECT LEGISLATION IN COLORADO.

Denver, Col., February 3.—The Legislature of Colorado will be asked to pass a bill recently introduced in the house providing for a pari-mutuel measure to govern future racing in the state. The bill provides for a commission similar to that in kentucky and there is every reason to believe that it will become a law. Governor Ammons, before he was elected, declared himself in favor of a bill of the kind and the measure was submitted to him for approval before it was passed to the law-making body. In the event of the act becoming a law it is expected that there will be a meeting at Overland Park in June and perhaps another in the fall. The racing will be for not more than thirty days at a time and as Denver has always been a good racing town it should be successful.

Edwin Gaylord, who is about to retire from racing as an owner, will in all probability be identified with the meetings at Overland Park if the bill passes. He will be here shortly from Junez to lend his influence to the effort for the passage of the proposed legislation.

ADVOCATES NATIONAL JOCKEY CLUB.

Charleston, S. C., February 3.—H. D. Brown was among today's visitors at Palmetto Park, having stopped off en route to Jacksonville and Havana. He goes to the latter place with a view to consumating negotiations for a concession that will enable him to build a track for winter racing. Mr. Brown amounced his determination to carry on his aight with the Jockey Club and he hopes for ultimate victory. He is advocating the formation of a national lockey club, to consist of members owning or controlling race tracks in the United States, to arrange for themselves the question of dates and to pass upon such other matters as pertain to racing. He is likewise in favor of giving horsemen a voice in the affairs of the turf, with representation in the proposed jockey club. In states where racing commissions are established, he is of the opinion that the proposed national jockey club should co-operate heartily and eliminate everything that might cause the slightest friction.

JUAREZ FAVORITES IN ECLIPSE.

All Six of the Public Choices Are Bowled Over-Florence Roberts Handicap Winner.

El Paso, Tex., February 3.—Not a single favorite reached the goal first in today's racing at Juarez Horses at remunerative odds held sway throughout. The winners were quoted at odds ranging from 4 to 1 to 30 to 1. Dick Dodie, coupled in the betting with Best Be as an entry from the stable of J. F. Newman, won the opening dash for two-year-olds. He stood a drive well in the final eighth of the journey.

ting with Best Be as an entry from the stable of J. F. Newman, won the opening dash for two-year-olds. He stood a drive well in the final eighth of the journey.

Judge Walton, the longest priced winner of the afternoon, was held at 30 to 1. In his previous races he had been in front in the first part of the racing, but had been quitting in the last eighth. Today he raced out in front and just did manage to last it out to beat Ocean Queen.

-Florence Roberts won the handicap at five and one-half furlougs from Pride of Lismore, which raced gamely considering that he was jumped on behind in the early part of the running. This is the first time at this meeting that the fast spriater Gilpy was unable to get to the front. He got away in his stride, but lacked his fast burst of early speed today.

John Louis was claimed out of the last race yesterday by D. Ford for $525. Black Mate was claimed at the same time for $525 by L. F. King, owner of Gelico.

Flowers & Campbell claimed Dangerous March out of the third race for $1,025.

Fern L. was bid up from $490 to $600 by C. P. Winfrey, but was protected by the owner, W. C. Claney.

Bob Lynch was bid up by W. S. Heath from $500 to $500, but J. Randolph protected his horse with the usual advance.

William H. Crane and members of his company, now playing here, were among the visitors at the Juarez track this afternoon.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Henry McDaniel will race his horses in Kentucky is season. Last summer he raced in the far west. The erection of 100 additional stalls at Juarez is contemplated, which will bring the total to 1,200. It is probable that the Juarez meeting will close on Sunday, March 23, which would make it of 109 days' duration.

Jockey C. Turner will begin his 1913 campaign at Palmetto Park within a week or so. T. Shannon will make his engagements.

It is not generally known that Mr. Carman scorns the services of a veterinary, and that he applies himself to the task of attending to the allments of his horses himself.

ing to the ailments of his horses limself.

In the early forties there was a "revival of racing" in this country which resulted in the importation of numerous thoroughbreds from England, and in commenting on it. The Spirit of the Times, which was the leading sporting paper of the time, said: "Notwithstanding the immense chance they (the imported stallions) have had, having generally had the choice of the finest mares, but seven of them have a winner at four-mile heats last year (1842), while thirteen of the native stallions have winners that won thirty-two races.

NO BLINKERS IN AUSTRALIA.

Under the new Rules of Racing in Australia no horse can run in a hood or blinkers. It is only necessary, says the "Australasian," to glance at the photograph of any race in England to see that the practice is very common there. It never was in Australia, and it is a rare thing to have any bother or delay at the start on any of our principal courses, Visitors seem to think the English starters are rather too gentle in their methods; but if this were the chief cause of the trouble the stewards of the Jockey Club should have found it out before now, and made changes. From all accounts, however, a worthy successor to MacGeorge, the great starter, has never been discovered.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., February 3,—Amos Turney shipped his string of twenty thoroughbreds from his farm near Paris today to Benning to go into training for the spring racing that is to open at Norfolk March 31.

March 31.
E. W. Heffner of Sheepshead Bay, trainer of the good racer Guy Fisher, is here visiting the breeding farms and training stables with a view to selecting some useful racing material.

NOTES OF THE TURF ABROAD.

Orby is the only Irish-trained horse to have went the Epsom Derby. In winning that event and the Irish Derby he created a record.

Irish Derby he created a record.

St. Simon was sold as a two-year-old for $8,000. He was engaged for the Two Thousand Guineas and other races, but could not run owing to the death of his nominator, Prince Batthyany. St. Simon was never beaten.

Playfair, the winner of the Liverpool Grand National in 1888, is still alive. Since being pensioned off he has been at his owner's place at Exning. Playfair, now thirty-two years of age, is probably the oldest race horse alive.

Mr. Evelyn Rathschild

the ofdest race horse alive,

Mr. Evelyn Rothschild, a son of Mr. Leopold Rothschild, has had the misfortune to lose his smart steeplechaser, Gold Brick. The son of Garb OrMissing Star, which had been entered in the Grand National, died as a result of a ruptured bloodvessel at Weedon January 17.
